

YORK

UNIVERSITÉ
UNIVERSITY
Admissions Office
4700 KEELE ST.
TORONTO ON
CANADA M3J 1P3

Dear Shandong University,

York University is committed to promoting student mobility and accessibility to education and welcomes transfer students from recognized and accredited institutions.

Students completing the two-year General Study Program (GSP) from Shandong University who achieve 70% overall average in all courses or higher will be eligible for admission and may receive up to 60 credits (equivalent to two full-time years of university study) toward a 4-year, Honours degree program at York University.

Depending on the degree program of study the applicant chooses at York University, applicants may be able to graduate in as little as three years of full-time study.

Direct course transfers include:

Shandong Course	YORK Course
ECCM 211	AP ECON 2500 3.0
ECCM 212	AP ECON 1000 3.0
ECCM 213	AP ECON 1010 3.0
ECCM 224	AP ECON 3430 3.0
ECCM 225	AP ECON 3150 3.0
UNIV 114	SC MATH 1013 3.0 or 1300 3.0
UNIV 115	SC MATH 1014 3.0 or 1310 3.0
UNIV 123	SC MATH 2015 3.0 or 2310 3.0

Students eligible for the maximum amount of credit exemptions/exclusions will receive 24 specific credits as identified above, a minimum of 15 credits towards elective requirements and, depending on the admitted program, all general education requirements waived, for a total of 60 credit exemptions/exclusions.

Admission to some programs is competitive and may require a higher overall average to receive direct entry admission, but achieving the stated 70% or higher on all course work in the General Study Program (GSP) from Shandong University will facilitate admission to an undergraduate program at York University.

At York, our students are the pride of our institution; we look forward to welcoming future Shandong University graduates to our vibrant community of scholars.

Sincerely,

Jock Phippen
Director, Recruitment & Admission
York University
4700 Keele St., Toronto, Ontario, Canada M3J 1P3

Below is a small sample of how the 60 credits apply to course requirements for a select number of degree programs at York University. Additional credits, above 120, may be required to satisfy all requirements within a degree program.

For a full listing of all subjects and degrees at York University, please refer to the future student webpage at futurestudents.yorku.ca/program-search.

Program, Degree Type	Credit Distribution
	General Education	Major Credits*	Elective Credits		Total Credits Applicable	Credits Not Applicable
			Outside Major	Free Choice
Accounting, Specialized Honours (Bachelor of Commerce)	21	6	18	3	48	12
Finance, Specialized Honours (Bachelor of Commerce)	21	6	18	3	48	12
Management, Specialized Honours (Bachelor of Commerce)	21	6	18	3	48	12
Marketing, Specialized Honours (Bachelor of Commerce)	21	6	18	3	48	12
Economics, Honours (Bachelor of Arts)	21	15	18	6	60	0
Business and Society, Honours (Bachelor of Arts)	21	9	18	12	60	0
Human Resource Management, Honours (Bachelor of Human Resource Management)	21	0	18	0	39	21
Computer Science, Honours (Bachelor of Arts)	21	6	18	15	60	0
Information Technology, Honours (Bachelor of Arts)	21	0	12	27	60	0

*each degree program has upper-level credit and cumulative grade point average requirements that all majors must satisfy in order to be eligible to graduate <http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/>.

Some degree programs have free choice credits that can be taken within or outside of the major program. Consult with academic advising should you have questions about this requirement.

 a proportion of courses must be taken at York to be eligible to graduate in an undergraduate degree program <http://secretariat-policies.info.yorku.ca/policies/proportion-of-courses-taken-at-york/>.

York University
Admissions Services, Bennett Centre for Student Services
Office of the University Registrar
4700 Keele St., Toronto, Ontario, Canada M3J1P3

York University China Representative Office
Suite 2301, Jianwai SOHO Building
39 Dongsanhuanzhonglu,
Chaoyang District, Beijing,
100022, PR China